The article must be submitted in Microsoft Word 2003 format and sent by e-mail!

Number of authors of one article should be no more than five. Any author has the right to be published in a release once, the second time only in co-authorship. UDC index precedes article name, corresponds to the declared theme and is put down in the top left corner of a sheet.

Content

In an article it is necessary to formulate problems, to describe an object of research, reached level of process of the research, novelty of results, area of their application.

Article should end with a conclusion. The conclusion text is typed by a separate paragraph (paragraphs) with the emphasis on the novelty of results, efficiency of their use, etc.

Call for Papers

An adequate number is 4 pages (including drawings, tables and bibliographic list).

Page size must be A4 (210 x 297 mm). Margins: right and left – 20 mm, top and bottom – 25 mm. Paragraph: 5 mm. Font type: Times New Roman.

Font size: 12 pt. Line spacing: single.

The main text of an article should be located through a blank from the resume. Intervals between the letters and words should be normal, hyphenation isn't allowed. Headings of heads should be centered.

It is not allowed to type in the text of an article text capital (header) letters and in bold, and also to place all specified elements in frameworks and to simulate typography which is used in the magazine.

Additional Requirements

Abstract. Abstract should contain not more than 5 lines and include the following article content aspects:

- subject, theme, work objective;
- method or methodology of work performance;
- results of work;
- results application area;
- conclusions.

References to literary or other sources are made out by the numbers concluded in square brackets, for example [1]. References should be orderly numbered.

Notes:

1. Semantic explanations of the main text or addition to it are made out in the form of intra text notes between the lines of the main text by the special heading allocated in the light italics: Note: (one note), Notes: (some notes). Should be separated from main text with a point (if is in singular, run on the text of a note).

Notes should be orderly numbered.

2. Where there is a grant, the reference to the grant is located in the bottom of the first strip under lines of main text (the interlinear note).

Formulas. Simple interline and one-line formulas should be typed without use of special word processors with symbols (font Symbol). Special difficult symbols, and also multiline formulas which can't be typed in the usual image, should be type set with formula editor Math Type. The set of mathematical formulas within all text should be uniform:

- indicia size should be set with standard settings of Math type (Size- Set-Plant-scale),
- Greek indicia – in direct font,
- Latin – in italics.

Formulas typed in the separate lines are located in the center.

Not allowed type settings of simple Latin, Greek or special symbols in formula editor, in the main text.

Tables should be orderly numbered. The word "table" is typed in the light italics with alignment to the right, the font 11 points (e.g. Table 1), lower goes the table title (it is typed by bold type in the center). If the table is of large volume, it can be placed on a separate page, and in a case when it is of considerable width – on a page with album orientation.

Illustrations. Illustrations and comments to them should be inserted to the main text of any article and additionally enclosed with a separate file of any accepted graphic format (e.g. .jpg, .bmp, .tiff etc.). Illustrations should be orderly numbered with a usual font without inverted commas with alignment in the center (e.g. Fig. 1), can contain the caption signature, with the font 11 points. Illustrations can be scanned from the original (in this case they should be clear, sharp, without extra background effect) or performed by computer graphics means.

Illustrations in colors are not accepted.
